TESTO N. 6

Paris e-scooters ban

In 2018, Paris became one of the first cities to introduce e-scooters. But some people say that the scooters do more harm than good. Critics of the battery-powered vehicles say that they get involved in many accidents. Riders often go at high speed, they move through traffic and often they don't wear helmets. The rising number of accidents which involved e-scooters led to a referendum on banning e-scooters. The referendum took place last week and 90% of voters voted against the scooters.

TESTO N. 3

Elephant Paints Pictures

Shanti is an elephant and her paintings cost 2000 dollars. Somebody has actually paid 2000 dollars for a painting done by an elephant. Shanti has painted 12 paintings so far but now she is refusing to paint more. The director of the Prague gallery came up with an entirely improbable reason why. The director said that "she starred as an elephant named Bimbo in the movie. She is an artist. Now she is in some sort of depression. We will just have to wait for her next wave of creativity." There is a good reason for all of this. Shanti's paintings bring money which helps elephants in Sri Lanka.
